

SEPTEMBER 2013

Administrative reports were given with Mrs. Akers reporting on the PTO magazine and PTO activities. Family reading night is November 7, 2013. Fifth and sixth grade will be included in the jr. high Christmas concert. Junior high and high school students attended the Character Championship Seminar at John Wood. The Lady Suns classic tournament went very well with better attendance this year. Mr. Rigg has been doing the elementary teacher evaluations. Mr. Kerr reported on the school website. He has used the website for class of the year competitions to increase usage of the website. The school year has gone very well with team teaching, new math curriculum, and a lot of positive things going on in the building.
