

HBHS STUDENT OUTCOMES

These outcomes represent characteristics that all HBHS students should possess upon graduation as they prepare to navigate through post-secondary life.

Self-Directed Learner

- Motivated
- Sets priorities and establishes achievable goals and personal plans for learning
- Plans and manages time and resources to achieve goals

Community Contributor

- Can understand and empathize with different perspectives
- Demonstrates responsible and ethical behavior in decision making
- Respects people's feelings, ideas, abilities and cultural diversity

Complex Thinker

- Generates new and creative ideas and approaches to developing solutions
- Considers multiple perspectives in analyzing and solving a variety of problems
- Demonstrates persistence in problem solving

Quality Producer

- Takes pride in one's work
- Recognizes and understands quality performances and products
- Utilizes revision strategies to create a polished final product

Effective Communicator

- Communicates effectively and clearly through speaking and writing
- Listens to, interprets, and uses information effectively
- Self-advocate

Effective/Ethical User of Technology

- Uses a variety of technologies to access and manage information
- Adaptable
- Understands and respects legal and ethical issues