

SUPERINTENDENT'S SHOUT OUT!

April 12, 2019

IN THE NEWS:

- Cedarville Elementary School is participating in Young Authors Week April 8-12. Grades 3rd -5th students attending the Young Authors' Conference at Wayne High School for are: Isaiah Bass, Niyousha Bolouri, Alice Cramer, Lillian Crites, Kylie Drayer, Megan Fowerbough, Madelynn Hite, Jonah LaGrange, Alexandra Lorenc, Brysen Maurice, Savannah Mckrill, Alexia Nighswander, Brooklyn Norris, Gretchen North, and Lucille Schott.
- Heritage Elementary School 5th grade teacher Matt Bucher has been named their Teacher of the Year. With 25 years experience, Matt loves building relationships, reading novels with them, and visiting nursing home residents with his students.
- 70 Leo Elementary School student cast and crew, guided by their teacher directors, brought the musical "Annie" to life during the inaugural performances on LEEL's new stage.
- 310 New Haven Primary School students will be attending a Tin Caps game on May 1st for completing their reading bingo cards.
- New Haven Intermediate School continues their commitment to teaching community service, having just finished the Jump Rope and Hoops for Heart fund raiser and now beginning the Pennies for Patients cancer fund raiser.
- Prince Chapman Academy's scholars and their parents took a chartered bus to Indiana University Bloomington to receive a campus tour and University orientation. The trip included a nature walk, a parent's only workshop and a student bus tour of the campus.
- Southwick Elementary School congratulates 1st grade teacher Candace deFluiter for being honored with the Northeast Literacy Council's Top 30 under 30 Award.
- 400 Woodlan Elementary School students completed the 3rd quarter Warrior Challenge which is based on academic and behavior goals. K-3rd grade students enjoyed time in a bounce house and an inflatable obstacle course. 4th-6th graders had a skating party.

Join us for the 2019 EACS Educational Foundation Dinner and Silent Auction with keynote speaker, Jim Morris!

The Cinderella story of Jim Morris serves as a testimony to the power of dreams and their ability to inspire and transform a human life. Jim Morris' meteoric rise from a 35-year-old high school teacher to a flame-throwing major league pitcher in three months made cinematic history with the film, The Rookie.

Guests will enjoy a delicious meal from The Orchid, an inspirational presentation from Jim Morris and incredible silent auction packages.

Proceeds from the event will go toward the EACS Educational Foundation's purpose of supporting EACS students and teachers achieve their dreams.

Date: Friday, May 3, 2019

Location: PFW Classic Ballroom - Walb Student Union
2101 E. Coliseum Boulevard

Convenient access through Parking Garage #2

Time: 6:00 - Doors open and silent auction begins
6:30 - Welcome and dinner served
8:30 - Silent auction ends

Tickets can be purchased by clicking here:
2019 EACS Educational Foundation Dinner & Auction
RSVP by April 25 at 6:00 p.m.

Questions can be directed to Michelle Clouser Penrod at mclouserpenrod@eacs.k12.in.us or (260) 446-0100, ext. 3161.

THANK YOU for your generous support of our EACS Educational Foundation's efforts!

DO YOU KNOW?

How many students does EACS Food Service feed on average per day?

Answer: 7,300 students