

Observation Day Two Band Trumpet and Clarinet

The groups were working on their presentations. I was able to go over one of the presentations and added some suggestions and let them know they needed more information on the Benny Goodman. The other group working on the trumpet was writing away and they did ask me a few questions on their information and they were doing well.