

Lady Bulldogs With 3 More Wins By Maddy Walz

On Tuesday, September 17, the Golden Plains High School Lady Bulldogs traveled to Colby and dominated matches against Tribune, Healy, and Heartland Christian. The Bulldogs had a triumphant day, coming home with three wins.

The first matchup of the day was between Greeley County and Golden Plains. This was the 3rd time the Lady Bulldogs and Tribune have competed. The ladies took the first set, 25-10. Continuing to make the Jackrabbits work, they ended the second set with the win of 25-6.

Next, the Bulldogs took on the Healy Eagles. "This was the first time we played Healy," shared Jordan Christensen, "It was nice to face a new team." Golden Plains emerged from the first set with a win 25-15. In the second set, the ladies pulled through to win 25-18.

The final game of the night was against Heartland Christian. This was the third time the teams have competed against each other, but they continue to challenge one another each time. The Lady Bulldogs began the set on top and remained on top, winning 25-15. Golden Plains proceeded to work hard and ended the match in two sets with a score of 25-16. "This was one of our most competitive games so far this season. It was great to see what we are capable of. I'm excited to see what the next couple weeks are going to bring with some new teams to play," senior Kylie Jones said.

The Lady Bulldogs' next matches will be on Tuesday, September 24, against Quinter, Cheylin, and Heartland in Rexford at 4 pm.
