

Lady Bulldogs Continue to Win

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs continue to win their volleyball games as they extended their record to 11-1 on September 24 in Rexford. The Lady Bulldogs have not lost a game since their first match on September 3. "We play some tough competition today," said Jordan Christensen. "This is the best we've played together so far this season."

The Lady Bulldogs from GPHS faced the Cheylin Lady Cougars for the first match of the day. The home town team grabbed an early lead before the Cheylin girls came back to within one. The Lady Bulldogs held tough not allowing the Lady Cougars to ever get ahead and won 25-17. In the second game of the match, The Lady Bulldogs continued to show their strength as they put the game away 25-13.

For the second match, the Lady Bulldogs played the Lady Bulldogs from Quinter. This was their first time to play the Quinter girls this season. The Quinter girls pulled ahead by 8 midway through the game before the girls from Golden Plains rallied, and tied the game at 15 with a spike from senior Kylie Jones. Both teams fought hard and hustled at the net to keep it close tying it back up at 25 with a kill from Jordan Christensen. With Christensen serving the last two points of the game, the Lady Bulldogs claimed the win 27-25. Having worn out the Quinter girls in the first set, the Lady Bulldogs from GPHS pulled to an early lead in the second claiming a 12 point lead at 22-10. Quinter's girls rallied and closed the spread, but the Lady Bulldogs held on for a 25-18 win.

For the final game of the night, both teams were getting tired but the Lady Bulldogs were determined to once again claim a victory over the Heartland Christian Lady Crusaders. This was the fourth time the Lady Bulldogs have competed with the Lady Crusaders this season. Although each time they meet gives both teams quality competition, the Lady Bulldogs once again won the contest 25-16 and 25-21.

The girls will play this coming Saturday in Cambridge, Nebraska, against Cambridge and Northern Valley giving them two new teams to test their skills against before heading to Colby on October 1 to face Weskan, Healy, and Heartland once again.
