

Bulldogs Compete at Colby

By Brianna Stoll

On Tuesday, October 1, the Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs traveled to Colby to compete against Healy, Weskan, and Heartland-Christian. Although they Lady Bulldogs had played against Healy and Heartland Christian multiple times, this was the first time the Bulldogs had seen the Coyotes all season.

The first game of the night was against Healy. The Bulldogs started the game off on a high note winning 25-5. They kept up their game in the second set, finishing the match 25-10.

The Bulldogs sat out the next game then played Weskan. Weskan and Golden Plains battled it out against each other, but the Coyotes just barely came out on top, winning the first set 25-20. Determined to get back in the game, the Bulldogs came back in the second match, sending the game into a third set by beating Weskan 25-16. The last set was very close the whole game. GP came back from being behind six points to just one point, but they couldn't quite get the lead, losing 25-21.

The ladies sat out two games before playing their last game against Heartland for the final game of the night. "Heartland always gives us a challenge when we play them," Jordan Christensen, senior, commented. "It's always good playing a team that makes us work." Golden Plains came out strong in the first set, beating Heartland 25-11. They kept up their intensity, finishing the night off on a good note defeating Heartland 25-11. The Lady Bulldogs will travel to Cheylin on October 4, to face the Lady Cougars for a Friday afternoon game.
