

Quinter Holds Off Bulldogs

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Bulldogs traveled to Quinter on January 27 for a Bulldog rematch. These two teams had met earlier this season in the Castle Rock Classic. Quinter once again came out on top with a 62-30 win over Golden Plains.

“We played better than we did at the beginning of the season,” said senior Braden Korte. “Quinter has also improved and should have a good season.”

Quinter claimed the lead early with a 17-8 advantage by the end of the first quarter. They held strong in the second putting up 20 points and holding GP to 6 in the second. The GP boys rallied a bit in the third to score 11 points, but 17 from Quinter increased the spread. Quinter backed off a bit in the fourth but still outscored Golden Plains 8-5 and held on to the win.

Kade Wessel scored 10 points for Golden Plains along with 8 points from Koi Wessel. Brett Gerbitz and Jesus Aragon each contributed 5 along with 1 apiece from Cole Ziegelmeier and Devin Carter.

The Bulldogs will face Palco on February 2 for the first round of the WKLL tournament
