

Bulldogs Lose Third Game to Titans

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Bulldogs lost their third game this season to the Triplains/Brewster Titans on February 17 in Winona. They had lost to them in Rexford in January and again in the League Tournament in early February. This third game had a similar outcome with a 23-44 loss.

The 'Dogs played a good first quarter to lead the Titans 10-9. The Titans took over in the second putting up 13 points holding the 'Dogs to 5 to pull ahead 22-15 at half time.

The third quarter was a scoring struggle as the 'Dogs only put down 3 points to the Titans 4. The Titans recovered in the fourth to add 18 points to the Bulldogs 5 in the fourth claiming the win 44-23. This was a closer spread for the Bulldogs than their previous two contests.

Kade Wessel and Koi Wessel each scored 8 points with Dawson Spresser adding 4 and Braden Korte-3. Koi and Kade worked the board with 8 and 7 rebounds for the team. Spresser grabbed 5, Korte-3, Domonic Luna-3, Cole Ziegelmeier-2, and 1 each by Jesus Aragon, Devin Carter, and Nick Brown. Korte, Spresser, Aragon and Kade each had 1 assist while steals were captured by Luna-3, Korte-3, Spresser-1, Aragon-1, and Koi-1.

The boys will play a second game away from home for the week on Friday at Wheatland/Grinnell
