

Bulldogs Come Up Short By Brianna Stoll

The JV Boys came up short 20-52 in a road game in Hill City on February 10, when the Golden Plains Bulldogs traveled to Hill City to take on the Ringnecks in a three quarter game.

To start off the game, sophomore Brett Gerbitz drained a 3, giving them a 3-0 lead. After a couple times up the court, the Ringnecks took a 5-3 lead. Not stopping there, Hill City kept up their intensity scoring 12 more points in the first quarter. The Bulldogs scored 7 more, falling behind 10-17.

During the second quarter, after a 5-minute half time, Hill City came out on fire scoring several baskets right away. They also picked up their defense holding Golden Plains scoreless for a while. Following a time-out, the Bulldogs came out with more confidence scoring 6 points to trail the Ringnecks 38-16.

Both teams picked up their defense during the final quarter. The Bulldogs were held to 4 points, while the Ringnecks scored 14. The final school of the game was 20-52. "I think we played really well during the first quarter, our defense worked really hard," stated sophomore Brett Gerbitz, "We just need to work on playing a full game all out, not just one or two quarters."

Points in the game came from Devin Carter-4, Nick Brown-4, Jeron Schutte-4, Gerbitz-3, Dawson Spresser-3, and Jesus Aragon-2. After two losses on the road, the JV squad will finish their season at home this Friday, February 27, against Cheylin.
