

Lady 'Dogs Drop Game at Hill City
By Judy Rogers

The Lady Bulldogs varsity team dropped the game 43-59 to the Lady Ringnecks in Hill City on February 10.

The girls kept the game close throughout most of the game with the Lady 'Dogs trailing 13-14 at the end of the first quarter. Both teams exerted exceptional effort in the second as the Lady 'Dogs added 11 and the Lady Ringnecks put in another 14 to lead 28-24 at half time

The girls were determined to do their best and put in an additional 15 in the third quarter. The Ringnecks continued to hit their shots both outside and under the basket to extend their lead 39-46 by the end of the third.

The Lady Ringnecks continued to pump up the score by 13 in the fourth, but the Lady Bulldogs were unable to get much to fall only adding 4 points to their final score. "We played one of our best games," said junior Kynndra Rush. "Hill City's girls are really good shooters. They should continue to have a good season."

Gabrielle Schiltz and Kynndra Rush led the scoring offensive with 13 and 12 points respectively. Rachael Ritter contributed 8 and Kami Miller-6. An additional 2 points apiece were scored by Morgan Ritter and Maddy Walz.

The girls did a good job rebounding with 33 to Hill City's 23. Rush claimed 11 of those along with Walz-6, R. Ritter-5, Schiltz-4, M. Ritter-4, Miller-3, and Schiltz-1. They also had 10 assists and 3 steals during the game. The Lady 'Dogs, who now have an 11-5 record, hosted the Healy Eagles on Friday.
