

Bulldogs Fall to Ringnecks By Morgan Ritter

On February 10, the Junior Varsity Girls Basketball team from Golden Plains fell 15-45 to the Lady Ringnecks of Hill City.

In the first half of the match-up, the Bulldogs started out slow and could not stop the Ringnecks from scoring. The score at halftime was 34-4, Ringnecks in the lead.

The Bulldogs worked hard in the second half to try to catch up to the Ringnecks, but the 'Dogs fell short and ended the game 44-15. With another loss added to their record, the JV Lady Bulldogs are 7-4 on the season.

"We have a lot of things we need to work on," said Freshman Maggi Nieman, "if we work to fix every little thing, we will become more successful."

The lead scorer for the Bulldogs was Morgan Ritter with 5 points. Other scorers were Sierra Finlay, Maggi Nieman, Kaylie Schaben, Jennifer Esparza, and Carmen Sepulveda each with 2 points.

The JV girls have only three games left for the 2014-2015 season. They traveled to Triplains/Brewster on February 17 and Grinnell/Wheatland on February 20, watch for the results of those games. The Bulldogs take on the Cheylin Cougars at Rexford on February 27 for the last regular season game.
