

Scholar Bowl Team Finishes Season By Haley Miller

The Golden Plains High School Scholar's Bowl team recently competed at Palco for the WKLL Scholar's Bowl and at Regionals to finish the season. "I thought we had a better season this year than we did last year," said Charlotte McCurdy-sophomore. "It's been a great season and a great learning experience for all of us, especially for me."

Competing for the 'Dogs were Clayton Bange, Nick Brown, Jennifer Luna, Devin Carter, Charlotte McCurdy, and Haley Miller. The team finished with seven wins and three losses, putting them in fourth place. GP won against Triplains, Heartland Christian, Cheylin, Healy, Northern Valley, Logan, and Palco and lost against Wheatland, Weskan, and Western Plains. "I thought we did pretty well," said Jennifer Luna. "We need to talk more and be more confident in our answers."

The GPHS team also competed at regionals on Thursday, February 4th. They won three of their rounds but did not advance to the state contest. "A big thanks to Mrs. Dougherty for putting up with us and laughing at all of our bad jokes," added McCurdy. "She's an amazing coach. Thanks you to everyone supported us this year; it meant a lot."
