

JV Girls Compete at Home

By Judy Rogers

The JV Volleyball team competed in two matches on their home court in Rexford on September 13. The Golden Plains teams hosted Northern Valley and Victoria losing both matches to the visiting teams.

Their first match was against Northern Valley. The girls started off keeping the score close, but the NV Huskies went on a 7-point run to lead 12-3. The Bulldogs gained a point before the Huskies went on another long run to gain a 10-point lead 18-8. The girls fought hard but were unable to shorten that lead as the Huskies won the set 25-15.

The Bulldogs switched sides with renewed vigor as they played a much closer second set. They kept the score tied through most of the set with the lead alternating between the 'Dogs and the Huskies. The Bulldogs held the lead at 13-12 before the Huskies tied it up following a time out. Back on the court, the Huskies gained the lead and kept it to win the set and the match 25-20.

The JV girls played a second match against the Victoria Knights. The Knights were tough opponents for the Bulldogs, as they won the first set 25-17. The Knights held on to their lead winning the second set and the match 25-13.

"I'm proud that we were able to fight back and keep the scores close in both sets," said sophomore Amanda Cheney. "We need to work on our communication, but, otherwise, I think it was a good experience." These losses put the JV record at 2-3 this season. They will play again in Quinter on September 20.
