

Elementary Students Publish Haikus
By Sheila Ritter

Golden Plains Elementary students in 3rd/4th/5th grade recently wrote Haiku Poems that were entered into the Young Poets Collection in Grantsville, UT. They did them during Bulldog time and worked on them after Christmas break and mailed them at the end of February. All 16 students will have one of their Haiku's published in the 2017-2018 Young Poets Collection book. Below is their collection of poems.

Third Grade:

My Cat, by Austin Larison

My cat is furry
My cat is playful
My cat has sharp claws

Watermelon, by Kailee Wessel

Green red black seed soft
Yummy juicy sticky fruit
Fireworks sweet June hot

Friendship, by Marisol Perez

Special awesome cool
Beautiful magical nice
Amazing friendly

Wild horses, by Adaline Wessel

You see me running
Leading my tribe to graze
Don't hesitate...run

Fourth Grade:

Rainforest, by Jaxson Vasbinder

Wet damp humid tree
Seed birds canopy leopard
Snakes frogs leaves monkey

Baseball, by Dylan Wark

Foul ball crowd home run
Popcorn hotdog hamburger
Catcher hitter bat

Outer Space, by Tanner Black

Zero gravity
Space station astronauts dark
Planet helmet suits

Monkey, by Rowdy Belair

Dangling tree hanging
Picking bananas tall
Tree brown swinging
Loud cry

Fifth Grade:

Sisters by Maddix Green

Nice helpful funny
Cool bossy bothering loud
Special protective

Summer, by Madilyn Green

Clear lakes flowing free
Beautiful flowers and trees
Summer sunshine hot

Woodpecker, by Emma Carter

Tree hammering loud
Fluffy feathers flies fast prey
Hunting worms snacking

Brother, by Hayden Wark

Talkative and weird
Hardworking feisty and loud
Active funny cool

PINE FOREST, by Araya Astalosh

Birds animals grass
Cool streams running fast babbling
Clear sky rabbits deer

TREES, by Dominic Stout

Leaves green bark brown big
Owls birds critters animals
Birch oak pine squirrel

COW, by Owen Patmon

Grazing pasture grass
Hooves thundering running fast
Black white jersey milk

America, by Wyatt Amlong

Red white blue free star
Air force navy infantry
Strong fighting soldiers