

Schaben Selected Student of the Month
By Judy Rogers

Golden Plains Senior Kaylie Schaben has been selected as the Student of the Month for December. Kaylie has been active throughout high school in Volleyball, Basketball, and Track having made two trips to the Class 1A State Basketball tournament. She has also been a member of the Dance team all four years and is a class officer and member of the National Honor Society. She has been on the honor roll throughout high school.

In addition to her busy school schedule, Schaben is also active in her community. She is a member of the Catholic Youth Organization and serves regularly at mass and is a lector. She is also a member of the Selden Public Library Board of Directors and volunteers at the library and has led the Pre-School Summer Reading Program the past two years.

Kaylie is the oldest of three children and is the daughter of Nate and Jaci Schaben of Selden. "It's an honor to be selected as Student of the Month all four years," said Schaben.
