

Bulldogs Put Up A Fight Against Rawlins County
By Ethan Weiner

On February 12, the Golden Plains JV boys played a half game against the Buffaloes from Rawlins County in Atwood. They put up a fight but lost by one, 18-19. The JV boys now have a record of 4-10.

In the first of two quarters the Bulldogs played tough but fell behind 7-12. Starting off the second and final quarter the Bulldogs came out strong tying the score up at 14 apiece with about 3 minutes left to play. With 43 seconds left on the clock the Bulldogs and Buffaloes were tied at 17. When there were 6 seconds left the Bulldogs were back up by one, 18-17. With about 2 seconds left the Buffaloes hit a short field goal to win the game 19-18. The Bulldogs called a timeout with 1 second on the clock. The Bulldogs got the ball inbounded but ran out of time before they could score.

Leading off the scoring with 5 apiece was Roberto Loya and Ashton Schiltz. Kole Butts, Colby Lathrop, and Jovanny Infante each added 2 and finishing off with 1 each was Joseph Yanez-Perez and Austin Patmon. "It was intense and a well fought battle," said Joseph Yanez-Perez. "Sometimes calls didn't go our way but we just have to accept that." The JV boys will close their season at Quinter on Thursday, February 14.
