

Let's Be The Author

The fourth and fifth grade Bulldog Classes were busy little writers again this winter. They each sent in three poetry pieces to Young Poets Collection in Utah and waited patiently for the results to come back. Congratulations to the following students at the Golden Plains Elementary for getting published in the Young Poets Collection 2018-19 book.

Fruit Loops

Colorful tasty sweet milk
Perfect tasty yummy treat
Breakfast lunch dinner
By: Diego Perez
5th grade

Alarm Clock

Terrible bossy
Scary loud reliable
Useful bright tells time
By: Anais Cepeda
5th grade

Cross Country

Running jogging fast
Hills trees ditches bug fun course
Three point five mile long
By: Zeke Weiner
5th grade

Shark

Some can be Rapacious
Some of them are Hammerheads
Their all predators
By: Jaxson Vasbinder
5th grade

China

Ancient old temple
Traditional foods soup and rice
Colorful red white
By: Tanner Black
5th grade

Camping

Trees tent campfire smoke
Cool nights morning fishing pole
Roasted marshmallow

By: Dylan Wark
5th grade

Bridle

Strong leather light new
Snaggle chains reins straps horses
Guiding leading drive

By: Braylee Knowles
5th grade

Soccer Ball

Colorful flat fun
Goal bouncy passing goalie
Players kicking the ball

By: Jordyn Bange
4th grade

Unicorn

Beautiful playful
Whimsical rainbow magic Imagination

By: Kailee Wessel
4th grade

Mythical Creatures

Hippocampus swim
Unicorn Pegasus horse
Centaur Sea Serpent

By: Addie Wessel
4th grade

Puppy

Husky fluffy breed
Bouncing play adorable
Red and white Shelby

By: Estella Vargas
4th grade