

JV Girls Win at Home By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV girls basketball team added a win to their 3-2 record with a 50-20 win over Heartland Christian School in Rexford on January 16.

The Lady Bulldogs got off to a 6-0 start before the Crusaders hit their first basket. The Bulldogs answered back as they pulled ahead 14-6 by the end of the first.

Both teams continued to work hard in the second as the Bulldogs added 12 and the Crusaders put up 8 for a 26-14 half time Bulldog lead. The Dogs came out strong in the third to add another 18, including a pair of threes from sophomore Rayna Taylor, as their defense held the Crusaders to 2.

The Crusaders put in another 4 in the final quarter as the Bulldogs added 6 for the 50-20 win. Sidney Taylor led the offense with 12 points along with 10 from Breanna Rath and 8 from Rayna Taylor. Jazline Manriquez put in 6, Emily Stoltz 4, Amie Cheney 4, McHaley Carter 4, and Lauren Patmon 2.

“The JV girls are playing well together,” said Rayna Taylor, who enjoys playing on the team with two of her sisters—Sidney and Candace. “Practicing with the varsity helps us improve as do the JV games. We should continue adding wins this season.”

The JV will have a week to practice before they play a half game against Wichita County in Leoti on January 25.
