

Bulldogs Travel to Leoti
By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Bulldog basketball team traveled to Leoti on February 22 to play a game rescheduled from early January. The Bulldogs fell to the Indians 27-65 in a fast-paced game.

The Bulldogs put in 7 to the Indians 13 in the first quarter. The Dogs only added 2 in the second as the Indians extended their half time lead to 41-9.

The Bulldogs kept working to add 8 in the third and 10 in the fourth. The Indians put in 14 in the third and matched the Dogs with 10 in the fourth for the 65-27 win.

Wade Rush and Ashton Schiltz each put in 8 points for the Bulldogs. Fabian Cepeda added 5, Jovanny Infante 3, and Kole Butts 3. Schiltz pulled down 3 rebounds, Rush 6, Alex Gonzalez 5, Infante 4, and 1 each by Ethan Weiner, Cepeda, and Roberto Loya.

Cepeda had four assists and Gonzalez had one. Steals were made byl Weiner, Cepeda, Loya, and Infante with blocks made by Gonzalez, Loya, and Rush. The Bulldogs will play their last regular season game against Wallace County in Rexford on February 23.