

GPHS Girls Defeat the Logan/Palco Trojans

By Brooke Stoll

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs hosted the Logan/Palco Trojans on January 15 in Rexford. The Bulldogs defeated the Trojans 51-9 to move their season record to 7-0. “We played very well together,” said sophomore Sidney Taylor. “I think that our rebounding was very good, but we need to work on our shooting as we go further into the year.”

The Bulldogs started the game out sharp with two fast buckets. The Lady Dogs continued to attack the basket to lead the Trojans 11-0 at the end of the first quarter. The Bulldogs started the second quarter strong with three back-to-back threes from Brooke Stoll to extend the lead to 27-8 going into halftime.

The girls came out of halftime with intense defense. The Bulldogs held the Trojans to 0 points in the third quarter, while adding 22 of their own extending the Dogs lead to 49-8. Both the Lady Dogs and Lady Trojans struggled to put up points in the fourth quarter, but the Bulldogs went on to win the game 51-9.

Brooke Stoll finished the game with 15, followed by Sidney Taylor, Kassie Miller, and Ashley Stoll each with 8. Breanna Rath finished with 7 points, Rayna Taylor 3, and Carli Nieman 2. The Bulldogs outrebounded the Trojans 52-21. Kassie Miller led the team with 11 rebounds. The Lady Dogs finished the game with 21 steals coming from Breanna Rath 6, Kassie Miller 5, Ashley Stoll 5, Jordyn Fleckenstein, Amie Cheney, Rayna Taylor, Brooke Stoll, and Morgan Wark each had 1.

The Bulldogs remain undefeated as they advance to 7-0 on the season. They will host the Triplains/Brewster Titans on January 19.
