

Lady Dogs Hold Off Buffaloes

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs held off the Rawlins County Buffaloes in Atwood on February 18 to remain undefeated with a 64-47 win.

The Lady Dogs came out on fire hitting shot after shot to get them started with a 23-12 first quarter lead. They continued to hit their shots while their defense controlled the Lady Buffaloes outscoring them 16-8 in the second for a 39-20 half time lead.

The Lady Dogs had a third quarter slump as they could only get 9 points to fall while the Buffaloes picked up the slack and posted up 14. Both teams continued to work hard throughout the fourth but the Dogs were able to outscore the Buffaloes 16-13 and hang on for the win.

Senior Ashley Stoll led the Bulldogs with 24 points. Kassie Miller added 17 along with Breanna Rath 6, Rayna Taylor 5, Brooke Stoll 5, Carli Nieman 4, and Morgan Wark 3.

The Lady Dogs pulled down 29 rebounds and dished out 14 assists. Their aggressive defense led to 21 steals including 8 by Miller. Additional steals came from Ashley Stoll 5, Rath 3, Wark 3, Brooke Stoll 2. The Lady Dogs will continue their season against Northern Valley in Rexford on February 19.
