

Wade Rush Passes 1000 points By Judy Rogers

Golden Plains senior Wade Rush joins the ranks of GPHS basketball athletes that scored over 1000 career points during their time as a Bulldog team member.

Rush, who is the son of Steve and Laura Fellhoelter and the late Lane Rush, scored his 1000th point against Wheatland/Grinnell in Grainfield on February 12. He finished the season and his high school career with 1065 total points.

Wade posted a total of 229 varsity points as a freshman, 293 points his sophomore season, 250 his junior year, and 293 as a senior. His season high this year was 21 points against Cheylin in the WKLL Tournament. His career high is 26 points scored against both Cheylin and Weskan at the Sagebrush tournament his sophomore year.

Rush joins other Golden Plains Athletes to score over 1000 points. The record for the boys is held by Travis Schlenk, Class of 1992, with 1300. Parker Christensen, Class of 1985, scored 1145 during his high school career. Jesse Miller, Class of 2005, had at least 1104, with Josh Miller, Class of 2001, scored 1101. Donnie Delzeit, Class of 1986, had 1040.

On the girls side, there have been several 1000 point leaders. Brenda Phillips, Class of 1981 holds the record with 2003 points. Amber Rogers, Class of 1993, scored 1720, while Katelyn Spresser, Class of 2007, had a total of 1507. KayCee Miller, Class of 2019, scored a career high of 1159.

“It felt good to reach this goal,” said Wade Rush. “I hope many future GP athletes continue to work toward scoring well for their team.” “This is a great accomplishment for Wade,” said AD Travis Smith. “He joins a great group of Golden Plains Athletes who have achieved the 1000 point mark. What a great way to cap off his GP career.”
