The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs had three girls named to the Sagebrush Shootout All-Tournament Team. Seniors Ashley Stoll and Brooke Stoll along with junior Kassie Miller were three of the five girls named to the team along with JC Allen from Weskan and Amelia Koehn from Wichita County.

“It was an honor to be named to the all-tournament team,” said Brooke Stoll who was also named to the team her sophomore year, “especially since this is my last year to play in the tournament. Although we three were selected, the recognition reflects how hard our teammates work together for the success of the team.”

“It’s always an honor to be selected for this type of recognition,” added Ashley Stoll. She too was selected her sophomore year. “It shows that hard work pays off. I’m glad all the other girls were also selected—it shows the strength of our team. “It’s an honor to be selected each time,” continued Kassie Miller, who was named to the team last season. “I’m excited for the rest of the season!”
