

Bulldogs Place First at Trego By Jamie Graves

The Golden Plains Cross Country Team continued their season at Trego on September 16th. The girls, with four runners, placed first as a team for the second week in a row.

Sophomore Emma Weiner placed first in the varsity girls with a time of 21:52.7. Emma has placed first at every meet so far this season. "The course was difficult; it was also hot and windy," said Weiner. "We still managed to place first as a team which I'm proud of." Junior Sidney Taylor, new to Cross Country this year, placed 4th in varsity with a time of 26:37.7.

Also running for the girls helping the team to a first place plaque were Ava Brantley placing 8th with a time of 30:14.8 and Emma Carter running a 42:45.9.

In Varsity boys, returning senior Ethan Weiner placed second with a time of 20:34.5. Freshman Owen Patmon ran for JV, placing first with a time of 25:49.2. "It was hard to push through with the wind," said Patmon. "I'm proud of everyone and how well we've been doing this season." The next meet for the team will be on September 23rd in Ness City with a start time of 4:00 P.M.
