

Lady Bulldogs Defeat Buffaloes

By Rayna Taylor

The GP Lady Bulldogs finished with another win against the Rawlins County Buffaloes at home on February 15 to remain undefeated.

The Lady Dogs started off with a close first quarter ending it 14-11. The Dogs hit their shots while playing strong defense holding the Buffaloes to only 5 points in the second quarter, leading at the end of the first half 27-16. “We worked hard all game long,” said senior Morgan Wark. “We have played well as a team recently and I am so excited to see what the post season has in store for us.”

The Dogs couldn’t find the basket as well in the third quarter only scoring 10 points, but held the Buffaloes to 9 to start the fourth quarter 37-25. Both teams continued to work hard in the final quarter with the Dogs putting up 10 and the Buffaloes adding 8, ending the game with a Bulldog win 47-33

Senior Morgan Wark led the bulldogs in scoring with 12, followed by Kassie Miller 11 Rayna Taylor and Breanna Rath each 9, Carli Nieman 4, and Sidney Taylor 2. The girls played at home again on February 17 in a makeup game against Quinter.
