

JV Boys Play Against Atwood
By Valeria Ortiz

The JV boys played two quarters against Rawlins County on February 15 in Rexford. The Bulldogs scored a three right after starting the game by Josh Rath. A basket Owen Patmon put the Dogs up 5-3. The Buffaloes took the lead as the Dogs fell behind. Patmon added another basket to end the first quarter with the Dogs trailing 7-11.

The Bulldogs worked hard in the second quarter to try and catch up but the Buffaloes pulled ahead 23-7 before the Dogs scored with another 3 from Rath. Dominic Stout put in four points and Rath added a free throw, but it wasn't enough as they fell to the Buffaloes 15-28.

"We played better as a team," said Rath. "We tried hard but we need to play better offense," added Patmon. Rath finished the game with 7 points with 4 apiece from Patmon and Stout. The Bulldogs continued their season against Quinter in Rexford on February 17.
