

JV Boys Play Close at Cheylin
By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV Boys basketball team played a close game against the St. Francis/Cheylin Cougars in McDonald on January 10 in a game that was postponed from earlier in the season. Although the boys worked hard for four full quarters, the Bulldogs fell to the Cougars 25-28.

The Bulldogs opened the first with a 9-8 lead over the Cougars. They added 7 in the second quarter but the Cougars put in 8 to tie the game up at 16 by half time.

The Bulldogs scored 5 more in the third as the Cougars pulled ahead with 6 of their own. The Cougars once again scored 6 in the fourth quarter while the Dogs only added 4 giving Cheylin/St. Francis the win 28-25.

GP points were scored by Josh Rath and Owen Patmon with 5 each along with 4 apiece from Ethan Weiner and Dominic Stout. Will Bruggeman added 3 as Garrett Carter and Abe Taylor each contributed 2.

The JV boys will continue their season as they play a 2-quarter game in Logan on January 14.
