

JV Boys Host Quinter

By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains JV Boys basketball team hosted a 2-quarter game against Quinter on February 17 in Rexford. This half game was a rescheduled game from earlier in the season with the Golden Plains team falling to Quinter 16-37.

Quinter jumped to a 20-0 lead in the first quarter of play before Golden Plains found the basket with 2 minutes remaining in the quarter. Will Bruggeman hit a free throw to get on the boards. Josh Rath hit a basket and a 3 with 2 more free throws from Dominic Stout to end the quarter 8-21.

Quinter extended their lead in the second quarter with an 8 point run but a 3 by Owen Patmon helped Golden Plains. Rath made another shot and another 3 to finish the game with a 37-16 Quinter win.

Rath led the Golden Plains team with 10 points with Patman adding 3, Stout 2, and Bruggeman 1. The JV boys played their third game of the week in Northern Valley on February 18.
