

JV Girls Edge Past Rawlins County
By Luz Aguilar

The Golden Plains High School Girls Junior Varsity Team edged past Rawlins County 19-18 on February 15 in Rexford.

The Bulldogs started off the first quarter off with Amie Cheney making the first two points for the Lady Bulldogs. Another basket by Cheney tied the game up at 4. The girls traded baskets throughout the quarter with the Buffaloes leading 12-9 at the buzzer.

In the second quarter, Hayden Wark made a basket to narrow the gap to 11-12. An and one from Jordyn Fleckenstein gave the Bulldogs the lead 14-12. The Buffaloes tied it up only to have Anette Hernandez and Wark extend the Bulldog lead 18-14.

The Buffaloes tied the game back up at 18 with 16.5 seconds to play.

Cheney added a one free throw giving the Dogs a one-point lead. The Buffaloes called time out with 1.8 seconds but once they got back on the court but were unable to score as the Bulldogs won the game 19-18.

“It was fun to play,” said Cheney. “I think it was a competitive game for the JV.” The Junior Varsity Girls team will have their next game on February 17 at Rexford, Kansas.
