The Lady Bulldogs controlled the game from start to finish as they put in 20 points in the first quarter holding the Trojans to 3. The Dogs added 21 in the second, holding the Trojans to 4, for the 41-7 victory.

Lauren Patmon and Carli Nieman each had 10 points for the Bulldogs along with 9 from Anette Hernandez. Hayden Wark added 7 and Jordyn Fleckenstein 5.

“We’ve gotten off to a good start,” said Anette Hernandez. “Practicing with the varsity helps everyone improve. I’m proud of how hard the entire team is working.”

The JV girls will next host Triplains/Brewster in Rexford on January 21 for another 2-quarter game.
