

Scholars Compete in Brewster

By Keyth Masoner

The Golden Plains High School Scholars Bowl team went to Brewster on January 17 for their annual invitational. The Bulldogs didn't make it out of their pool, ending with a record of 2-4.

The Bulldogs lost the first two rounds 20-30 to Wallace County and 10-40 to Heartland. They earned 20 points in a ghost round in round 3. In the next few rounds, they won 40-0 over Triplains then lost 30-0 to Weskan. Their final victory for the night was 60-10 over Brewster. The last round was a loss 10-30 to Healy.

Competing for the Bulldogs were Wyatt Amlong, Jordyn Fleckenstein, Memo Aragon, and Ethan Weiner. "We struggled to get going," Fleckenstein said, "but we had fun and hope to improve on our buzzing in, so we can guess more, even though we may not know the answer." The next scholar's bowl meet will be on January 19 at the WKLL league meet in Palco.
