The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs hosted a Triangular match on September 21 in Rexford taking on the Quinter Bulldogs and St. Francis Indians. The Junior Varsity girls started out the evening falling short to St. Francis ending in two sets, 24-26, 23-25. The girls finished the night well, beating Quinter in two sets ending the first with a close one, 26-24, and pulling through in the second set winning 25-13. “In our first game we needed to work on our communication,” said senior Amie Cheney, “but going to face Quinter, we figured it out and played well together.”

The Varsity girls started out the night facing St. Francis. The girls took the win in two sets, 25-16, 25-22. “It was nice to finally play on our home court,” said Senior Morgan Wark. “We all worked well together and had great communication. I cannot wait to see what the rest of the season has in store for us!”

The final game of the night was against the Quinter Bulldogs. The girls finished off the night well with a second win 25-17, 25-13. The Bulldogs, with a 17-2 season record, will play at home again on Saturday, September 25 with Greeley County, Wallace County, and Weskan competing.
