By Judy Rogers

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs won one and lost one game in Almena on September 14. The varsity team defeated Northern Valley in three sets and lost to Victoria in two sets. "We had some lack of communication in the first game coming off the intensity of the Gove County Classic," said Amie Cheney, senior. "We worked hard to stay positive and focused as a team."

The first game of the night was against the Northern Valley Huskies. They Bulldogs took control of the first set winning 25-14. They lost their focus in the second set as they fell to the Huskies 19-25. Regaining their confidence they claimed the third set and the win 25-15.

Their second game of the night was against the Victoria Lady Knights. The Knights remained undefeated as the Bulldogs worked hard but fell to them in two sets 18-25, 19-25.

The JV girls played a three-set match against the Northern Valley JV team. The Bulldogs won the first set 25-17. The Huskies came around in the second set to win a close game 26-24. The Bulldogs were back on top in the third set winning 15-9. "I am proud of the JV girls for working hard to get the third set win over the Huskies," said Amie Cheney.

The Bulldogs will host their first home games of the season on September 21 against St. Francis and Quinter.
