

Bulldogs Claim Two in Rexford

By Carli Nieman

The Golden Plains Lady Bulldogs claimed two more wins against the Northern Valley Huskies and Triplains-Brewster on October 5 in Rexford.

The Bulldogs took on the Huskies to start out the night. This was their second time facing each other this season. GP started off with intensity, gaining a lead and winning the first set 25-20. The Huskies came out fighting in the second set. The Dogs got into a slump and fell behind. After continuous rallies, the Huskies defeated the Bulldogs 24-26. The Dogs were able to recover but struggled to work together. It was a close rally throughout the third set and the Lady Bulldogs were able to come out with the win 25-22. "We had a rough start but we were able to come together and get the win," said Senior Rayna Taylor. "I think we can work towards being more consistent and not falling into any lows."

The second game of the night was between the Golden Plains Bulldogs and Triplains-Brewster. This was their third time facing each other this season. The first set started out as a back-to-back rally between the teams. The Lady Bulldogs were able to pull ahead and win 25-18. The second set started off similar and the Dogs were able to work hard and win 25-11. "I was glad we pulled off two wins," said sophomore Jordyn Fleckenstein. "Having no games the week before had us off our game a bit. We will need to keep improving our communication."

The Lady Bulldogs will travel to Hill City on October 9 to compete in the annual Hill City Ringneck Classic Tournament.
