

MS Lady Bulldogs Split Games with Lady Huskies

By Breanna Rath

The Golden Plains Middle School girls basketball team traveled to Northern Valley on December 16 and brought home an A-team win, 18-12. Unfortunately the B-team fell to the Huskies 9-14. This was their final game before Christmas Break. The A-team goes into the break with a 3-2 record while the B-team holds a 2-3 record.

The B-team girls started the night off against the Huskies with a full game. They trailed early in the game and ended the first quarter with one basket from Brenlynn Rath to make the score 2-4. Scoring no points in the second quarter, the Lady Bulldogs went into half trailing 8-2. The Bulldogs started the second half strong with a 3 point basket from Adilyn Meier. The Huskies managed to put up another 4 points leaving the Bulldogs behind 5-12. Good defense from the Bulldogs in the 4th quarter only allowed the Huskies to put 2 points on the board while the Bulldogs put up 4 of their own, 3 coming from Lakin Wark. Unfortunately, the B-team lost 9-14. Points came from Rath 3, Meier 3, and Wark 3.

The A-team girls played a good first half scoring 6 points and only allowing the Huskies 4. After the half, the Bulldogs came out on fire and put 8 points on the board. Tough defense and hard work from the Bulldogs kept the Huskies scoreless. With a lead of 14-4 going into the 4th quarter the Bulldogs put up 4 more points. The Huskies fired up and closed the 10 point gap to a 6 point spread after scoring 8 points in the final quarter. The Lady Bulldogs responded to the action and shut the Huskies down finishing the game with an 18-12 win.

Anais Cepeda led the team with 8 points followed by Rath 5, Braylee Knowels 3, and Kaylie Wessel 2. The girls will return to competition on January 6 when they travel to McDonald to play the Cheylin Cougars.
