

Scholars Win at Rawlins County

By Luz Aguilar

The Golden Plains Middle School Scholars Bowl teams had their second meet of the season at Atwood on November 8. The seventh graders placed 3rd and the 8th grade won first place at the meet.

The 8th graders went undefeated in 5 rounds winning against Decatur County, Cheylin, Rawlins County, Colby, and Goodland. Team members were Jaxson Vasbinder, Zeke Weiner, Tanner Black, Braylee Knowles, and Dylan Wark. “We need to work on our science and history,” said 8th grader Braylee Knowles.

The 7th graders won 3 rounds against Decatur County, Cheylin, and Rawlins County, and lost 2 rounds against Colby and Goodland. The round with Rawlins County went to four tie-breaker questions. Golden Plains ended up winning against Rawlins 60 to 50. Team members included Kailee Wessel, Addy Wessel, Kadalen Unrein, Katie Carter, and Lusía Ramirez-Rodriguez.

“At the beginning, I was very nervous,” said Luisa Ramirez-Rodriguez,” but at the end I was excited.” The Middle School Scholars Bowl team will have their next meet at Cheylin in Bird City on December 6.
