

MS Scholars Place Second in Colby
By Jaqueline Manriquez

The Golden Plains Middle School Scholars had their 4th meet in Colby on January 10. The 8th graders had 6 rounds; they won 4 rounds over Burlington, Grinnell, Oakley, and Quinter, and lost 2 rounds to Heartland Christian and Scott City. Team members included Anais Cepeda, Braylee Knowles, Tanner Black, and Zeke Weiner. “It went well,” said Anais Cepeda. “We need some improvement on answering questions faster.” They finished in second place.

The 7th graders had 6 rounds with Burlington, Grinnell, Heartland, Oakley, Quinter, and Scott City. They tried hard but were unable to win any rounds. Team members included Addy Wessel, Luisa Ramirez-Rodriguez, Kailee Wessel, Kadelen Unrein, and Javier Romero. “It went well, we just really need to work on answering more questions,” said Romero.

The next Middle School Scholars bowl will be held in Brewster on January 17.
