

Robust Vocabulary

1. loathe If you loathe something, you hate it.
2. bland Something that is bland is dull and unexciting.
3. mentor A mentor is a trusted person who gives a person helpful advice.
4. dilapidated A dilapidated building looks worn out and run down.
5. coordination Coordination involves organizing the different parts of something so that they work well together.
6. altruism Altruism is being concerned about others before worrying about oneself.
7. sensibility A sensibility is a special awareness in a certain area; for example, a person can have an artistic sensibility or a musical sensibility.
8. advocacy Advocacy is giving support to a person, idea, or cause.
9. mistreated If something is mistreated, it is used in a way that harms or hurts it.
10. compassionate A compassionate person is kindhearted and understanding.