

Robust Vocabulary

1. pried If you have pried something off, you have forced it away from a surface.
2. desperately Wanting something desperately means wanting it so much that you'll do almost anything to get it.
3. sneered If you sneered at someone, you showed with your words and expression that you had little respect for that person.
4. indignantly When you say something indignantly, you show irritation because you feel you have been insulted or treated unfairly.
5. urgently If you urgently tell someone to do something, it is important that it be done right away.
6. grudgingly If you say something grudgingly, you say it without really wanting to.