All summer programs will facilitate students' abilities to meet academic as well as social/emotional goals. The summer programs will be designed to include integrated learning across all subject areas, with opportunities to engage in Responsive Classroom (elementary) or Restorative Practices (MS/HS) activities. To increase participation in the program, transportation will be provided for students who are attending the summer programs.

The after-school programs will provide follow-up to the summer school studies; support services for students who might require some additional conceptual and/or skill development in preparation for unit study in ELA, mathematics, science and social studies. It will also address development of executive functioning skills which could include active listening, comprehension, note taking, stress management, time management, test taking skills, and study guides.

Book Clubs will provide enrichment for all students in grades kindergarten through grade eight. Teachers will meet weekly with students to discuss assigned books/chapters and provide activities to enhance students' comprehension.
