Using Quality Literature Effectively in Early Childhood

A Seminar for Parents and Early Childhood Educators
by the Tolland Family Resource Center

“The more that you read, the more things you will know.
The more that you learn, the more places you'll go.”
-Dr. Seuss

Monday, February 5, 2018
Birch Grove Primary School Media Center
6-8 pm

Using some of children’s favorite classic and new story books, Jodie Sprague, early childhood education specialist, will present methods to get and keep your child reading, including hands-on activities and discussion about the importance of quality literature and the impact on children’s later social, emotional and academic proficiency

Learn:

- What makes quality literature and why it is important
- Research on reading and its effects on child development
- How to integrate reading into today’s busy and technologically aware homes and classrooms
- Activities to extend learning and maintain interest
