UPDATE FOR SUMMER /2017

IMPORTANT MEETINGS ON THE BUDGET

7-26-2017 – Board of Education Meeting - Town Council Chambers – 6th Floor Hicks Building, 7:30 PM

7-31-2017 – Joint Meeting BOE/Town Council – Tolland PUBLIC LIBRARY (Program Room) – 7:00 PM

8-9-2017 – Board of Education – Town Council Chambers – 6th Floor Hicks Building, 7:30 PM

Note to parents/guardians – I cannot emphasize enough the importance of attending the upcoming meetings. The budget situation in the state, and how that impacts Tolland, is something that every parent, guardian, and citizen would greatly benefit from understanding. In the next week or two, I am in the unfortunate position of presiding over what could be the largest reduction in a single year in Tolland's education program in recent history, if not perhaps ever. For the sake of perspective, since I began in the district in 2007 we have reduced 37 staff. The Tolland Public Schools is in the situation today where I am planning the reduction of 37 to 40 staff in this ONE year and most accurately, in this one month. The impacts of this will be profound and far-reaching. I urge you to come to the upcoming BOE (7-26 and 8-9 @ 7:30 Hicks Bld) and BOE/TC joint meeting (7-31-2017 @ 7 PM in the Tolland Public Library) to find out more.

Florida's Education System — The One Betsy DeVos Cites As a Model — Is in Chaos

July 22, The Washington Post

U.S. Education Secretary Betsy DeVos, the School "choice" advocate, has frequently called Florida a national model for its range of school choices — including voucherlike programs that use public money for religious and private school tuition — though she doesn't talk about the consequences of expanding these choices on the schools that educate the vast majority of schoolchildren, public schools. washingtonpost.com
