ULTIMATE DECA POWER TRIP

Tolland High School DECA Club officers spent an action-packed weekend in Baltimore, Maryland from November 16 – 18th.

- Seniors –Allyse Ernest, Jayden Regisford, Kevin Shorey, and Nicholas Younge
- Juniors – Emily Bliss, Sonika Kohli, and Matt Coleman

THS DECA officers recently had the honor of attending the Ultimate DECA "Power Trip". There was over 1500 students from the North-Atlantic and Southern regions in attendance, and even a contingent from Germany. Tolland joined a group of 60 students from six area high schools for a powerful Connecticut presence at this conference. During the three days, students heard from motivational speakers and attended eight breakout sessions regarding leadership, college, and career topics. Additionally, all students competed in a business case study analysis where they had the opportunity to pitch their ideas and solutions to a panel of judges. We are proud to announce that Emily Bliss received an impressive score of 94 and was awarded a coveted "Top Performer" medallion!

Our own Jayden Regisford, the Connecticut DECA president, was also selected to act as a moderator for four of the panel discussions. He did a great job introducing and assisting conference speakers.
